Urgent Parent Reminder Regarding Student Absences

All student absences, including illness, must be notified to the school office by telephone (801.578.8529) on the morning of the first day of the absence. The absence should be covered with a note on your child's return to school. All absences are unexcused if notification is not made.

Counselor's Connection

Meadowlark has incorporated the topic of bullying prevention in lessons and activities. Examples of activities to teach about bullying include presentations, such as:

- Speech or role-play on stopping bullying
- Discussions about topics like reporting bullying
- Creative writing, such as a poem speaking out against bullying or a story teaching bystanders how to help
- Artistic work, such as a collage about respect or the effects of bullying
- Classroom meetings to talk about peer relations

If you see bullying or are being bullied, please let a teacher, counselor or other trusted adult know as soon as possible. Bullying will not be tolerated. Stand up for your rights!
